

MUDr. Anton Čunderlík, Ph.D.

In 1986, he graduated from the Jessenius Faculty of Medicine Comenius University in Martin in the field of General Medicine. Later, he was board-certified in Gynaecology and Obstetrics. In 1998 he completed the study of Economy and Business at the Clarendon Business College in Sydney, Australia. In addition, he studied at the University of Sydney, Faculty of Health Sciences, School of Medical Radiation Technology. In 1997-1998 he worked at the Royal Hospital for Women, Dept. of Medical Imaging, Sydney. In 2005 and 2006, he was board-certified in Ultrasound in Obstetrics and Gynaecology and Maternal-Fetal Medicine at the SMU in Bratislava. In 2008, he earned his Ph.D. title. Currently, he works at the 1st Clinic of Gynaecology and Obstetrics FM SMU and University Hospital Bratislava and is an owner and head of the outpatient clinic ACsonogyn, s.r.o. for Ultrasound, Gynaecology and Obstetrics. Dr. Čunderlík is a member of the Committee of the Slovak Society of Ultrasound in Medicine, International Society of Ultrasound in Obstetrics and Gynaecology, and the Fetal Medicine Foundation, London, UK. In 2010, he won Gedeon-Richter Inc Award for education update in Prenatal and Gynaecological Ultrasonography. He is the author and co-author of more than 40 scientific papers.