

MUDr. Igor Bartl

In 1987, he graduated from the Faculty of Medicine Comenius University in Bratislava in the field of General Medicine. Later, he was board-certified in Urology and Sexology.

Since 1987, he has been working at the University Hospital in Bratislava in the Department of Urology and the outpatient department of Sexology and Andrology. In 2000-2013, he worked as the founding editor-in-chief of the journal Sexology. Since 2014, he has been President of the Slovak Sexological Society. He is a member of the ESSM / ISSM and regularly attends its international congresses.

He has been involved in the approximation and preparation of the national EAU guidelines for erectile dysfunction and male infertility. Since 2015, he has been the leading coordinator of the scientific group for sexology at the Ministry of Health of Slovakia and the preparation of the establishment of the Department of Sexology within continuous postgraduate education. Since 2017, he has been a member of the Presidium of the Working Group at the MH SR for the preparation of national recommendations for medical issues of transgenic persons.

He is an active lecturer and organizer of professional events on sexology, andrology, and urology.