

Mgr. Pavel Svitok, Ph.D.

Mgr. Svitok completed his master's studies in 2012 at the Department of Animal Physiology and Ethology, Faculty of Natural Sciences Comenius University in Bratislava. In 2016, he completed his education with a dissertation examination. Since 2016 he has been working for the company GYN-FIV,a.s. – centre for Gynaecology, Urology and Assisted Reproduction in Bratislava, as an embryologist. Since 2020, he is member of the Committee of National Representatives for ESHRE. In 2021 he became a certified embryologist of ESHRE. He has published a number of articles in professional journals. He actively participates in domestic and international congresses focused on assisted reproduction, andrology, and embryology.