

MUDr. Peter Papcun, PhD, MPH.

MUDr. Peter Papcun finished his studies at the Faculty of Medicine Comenius University (FM CU) in Bratislava in 2002, in the field of General Medicine. In 2010, he was board-certified in the field of Gynaecology and Obstetrics at the FM CU Bratislava. In 2015, he earned the Ph.D. title at the FM CU in the field of Gynaecology and Obstetrics. In 2022, he completed his specialized studies at the Slovak Medical University in Bratislava and obtained an MPH degree for Specialist in Public Health Management. Since 2002, he has been working at the 2nd Clinic of Gynaecology and Obstetrics of the FM CU and University Hospital in Bratislava, since 2017 in the position of deputy head - consultant. Dr. Papcun has been engaged in the diagnosis and treatment of pelvic floor disorders and female urinary incontinence for a long time. He has published a number of papers in professional journals. He participates in domestic and foreign congresses focusing on pelvic floor disorders and surgical treatment in gynaecology.